On Thursday, June 11 at a Regular Meeting of the Board of Education, AUSD Trustees appointed Brad Lyall as the new assistant principal at La Sierra, effective July 1, 2020.

Brad Lyall has been an educator for 18 years. He comes to AUSD from the Saddleback Valley Unified School district. After graduating from the University of Cincinnati with a bachelor's degrees in Mathematics and in Secondary Education, Mr. Lyall started his career as a high school math teacher in Ohio. He then moved to Colorado. In Colorado Springs, School District 11, he was a high school math teacher, a math interventionist, a tutoring center director, and ultimately an intervention coordinator. He co-authored "The Revitalized Tutoring Center: A Guide to Transforming School Culture," and had spoken all over the country regarding his intervention program. In addition, he also earned his master's degree in Curriculum and Instruction from the University of Phoenix. In 2016, he moved to California and was hired in Saddleback Valley USD as an Academic Coach at Trabuco Hills High School, then two years ago became the assistant principal at La Paz Intermediate.

Mr. Lyall and his wife have one son at home and one son who serves in the United States Army. Upon learning of his appointment, Mr. Lyall said, "I am eternally grateful for my family who has been so supportive every step of my career, as well as to the AUSD Board of Education for the opportunity to be part of the Alvord Unified School District family."

ABOUT US: Alvord Unified School District serves the westernmost portion of the city of Riverside, as well as parts of the city of Corona and an unincorporated area of Riverside County.
