He is a thoughtful, kind, helpful and well-mannered young man. He strives to do his best inside the classroom and outside of it as well. He takes pride in his work, completes classwork and homework consistently, and this has been the case since he set foot on the RMK campus in kindergarten. He is a great role model for his peers. He has been on Student Council for the past two years. Gabriel has leadership potential and during the Student Council Speech Assembly gave an inspiring speech that laid out plans to help his fellow classmates improve their social, emotional and academic well-being on the RMK campus. RMK is fortunate to have hard working, committed, and caring instructional staff that is dedicated to continuous improvement, Meghan Martinez is one of them. Mrs. Martinez is a team player and has a great attitude about teaching and learning. She is always looking for new ideas and for ways to improve student achievement. She collaborates naturally, shares resources, and is open minded about new learning and new endeavors. She has created a warm and positive environment for her fifth grade students to thrive in and reaches the hard to reach student by building trusting relationships based off mutual respect. Mrs. Martinez is a true teacher leader on campus and successfully served as an interim assistant principal for Rosemary Kennedy this past spring.

Every school needs dedicated, hardworking and positive support staff to run effectively, Ramona Valenzuela is all those things. Ramona has only been the school secretary at RMK for five months, but in that time, she has worked wonders creating an administrative office operation that has helped to support parents, students and staff with anything and everything they may need. She has an enormous workload and works hard every single day and sometimes in the evenings to develop procedures and systems that will improve operations of our front office. She handles all personnel actions, time cards, pay stubs, purchase orders, substitutes, and countless office tasks that arise during a busy school day, and she always does it with a service and support mentality and with a smile on her face. She shows up to work every day and ready to go at 7:30 am with a desire and focus to help RMK realize its' unlimited potential.

It is a great pleasure to honor Ramona Valenzuela as the Alvord Unified School District Classified Employee of the Month for October 2017.

In this role, she has worked with students, staff, and parents to ensure that our students' lives are enriched and improved in any way possible. She works hard with our Executive PTO Board to raise funds for school field trips, leads family nights, organizes school assemblies, and book fairs, and helps out with any new initiative or project that presents itself. Recently she undertook the PTO Membership Drive that helped us grow our membership to over 200 members. Mrs. Barajas uses a common-sense approach and a willingness to listen to ensure that our PTO becomes a stronger and inclusive organization. She goes about her business very quietly and with little fanfare, but rest assured she is a strong and positive force on the RMK campus. Even though she is very busy she finds time to volunteer in her children's classrooms and with whatever their teachers' need.
