6. Alvord Unified School District's Professional Development Plan – Equity and Literacy: Jackie Casillas, Director III, Elementary Literacy, and Jennifer Shriver, Director III, Secondary Literacy, gave a presentation and update on the Literacy Plan and the Professional Development Plan (DPDP) for teachers, clarified information and answered questions.

Hearing Session: President Kaspereen extended an invitation to the audience to present matters of concern to the Board. The following individuals came forward:

- K.R. Zack Earp, Alvord Educational Foundation, announced the upcoming AEF 5k Spirit Run and Health Fair scheduled for Saturday, February 4, 2017, at Norte Vista High School. Mr. Earp invited everyone to join Mayor Bailey and Dr. Salazar at the event. Dr. Salazar will introduce Mayor Bailey at 8:15 a.m. Proceeds from this event will be awarded in senior scholarships.

The following individuals came forward to express concerns about the poor condition Norte Vista High School Band's instruments and uniforms, inability to access the stadium for practice, lack of equity in amount of the stipend for band and the lack of a trailer for transporting equipment when compared to La Sierra High School and to request assistance for Norte Vista High School's passionate and dedicated Band students.

- Jason Lomeda, Norte Vista High School Band Director
- Tina, President of Band Boosters Club, Norte Vista High School
- Denise, Norte Vista High School Drum Major

The following individual came forward to address the Board:

- Scott Andrews, community member, was happy to see the slide show of Arlanza Elementary School, where he is a volunteer. Mr. Andrews expressed concerns related to the January 10, 2017, Town Hall Meeting and stated that he felt it was more of a workshop, he would like to see more Board involvement and an opportunity for the community to provide feedback. Mr. Andrews concluded by thanking for the Board for extending their day and holding the Town Hall Meeting.
